12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD has rescued the poor from the clutches of the wicked (Jeremiah 20:10-13).

Psalm — Lord, in your great love, answer me (Psalm 69).

Second Reading — The grace of God overflows for all (Romans 5:12-15).

Gospel — All who acknowledge Jesus before others will likewise be acknowledged by Jesus before the Father (Matthew 10:26-33).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Eucharistic Prayers at the heart of our liturgy have a long history, beginning with the extemporaneous prayers of the early Christians. The presiders gave thanks from their hearts, not from any prearranged text, over the gifts of bread and wine. When the assembly had the sense that enough was said, someone would call out "Amen!" and that was that. For the most part, the plan flowed directly from Jewish meal prayers, which always recalled God's mighty deeds. Some other markers and signposts were added almost everywhere fairly early, like the presider's call to attention: "Lift up your hearts!"

Scholars have provided us with translations of many early texts. These have actually helped us craft new liturgical prayers, because until the liturgical reforms of forty years ago, no one could recall any prayer but the Roman Canon, now called Eucharistic Prayer I. For hundreds of years in the West, it was our only Eucharistic Prayer, and it was only in Latin. But the history of our Eucharistic Prayers is amazingly fruitful, and models have come down to us that have yielded new insights and expressions. The old custom of improvising texts according to a master plan has not endured, but we have now rediscovered a plan of standardizing the text while allowing for a great variety.

COMMUNITY LIFE

Screening of the movie, "Outcasts"

Thursday, July 13, 2017 - 6:00 p.m.

Catholic Life Center - Main Auditorium

1800 S. Acadian Thoroughway

Baton Rouge, LA 70808

Step out of your comfort zone and follow the cameras of Grassroots Films in the lives of our modern day "outcasts." The award-winning producers of films such as "The Human Experience" and "Child 31" will take you on an unexpected journey across the globe. You will follow the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal to the prisons of Central America and walk with them through the dark streets of London, New York and Ireland's most treacherous neighborhoods as they attempt to affirm the dignity of everyone, especially the desperate and forgotten. The film promises to prick your conscience to consider the radical message of the Gospel, which is rooted in God's profound love for every person.

After the screening, there will be time for discussion and Q&A with one of the film's producers. This is a free event. For more info., contact Danielle Van Haute at (225) 242-0323 or email at dvanhaute@diobr.org. To watch a trailer of the movie, visit www.outcaststhemovie.com.
